TANGO IS O. K. IF PROPERLY PRESENTED

DANCING MASTERS SAY IT MUST BE DANCED FROM THE HIPS DOWN.

(By Associated Press.)
BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Sept. 4.—The Tango, hesitation waltz, hitch koo and peacock glide, are all right when danced decorously, according to the International Association of Dancing, holding its session here.
The opinion is the result of an analysis by Secretary Kelly, who said the association never recognized the turkey trot, horse trot, or grizzly bear, as they are too vulgar when danced from the hips up instead of from the hips down.

NOT A FAIRY STORY.

Once upon a time there was a shrewd person who wanted his business proposition to reach a very influential man.
He could not get to see him in person but he learned that he was a constant reader of a certain newspaper.

So the man who wanted something wrote an advertisement stating his proposition and worded in the way he believed would appeal to the ONE MAN he wanted to reach.

He put it in a prominent place in the newspaper read by the ONE MAN.

He kept it there and before many days rolled around it did just what he hoped it would, bringing him to the attention of the customer.

Both profited—for this is a true advertising story.

Now the point to you lies in the fact that there is probably some message in the advertising of today's Bonanza that is written expressly to you.

Are you a reader of the advertising so you can catch the message?

It may be important.

ELKO GROCERY GETS SUPPLIES BY THE MAILS

ORDERS IN FIRST ZONE AND GOODS CARRIED 1000
MILES.

To start up a grocery store and have the supplies arrive by parcel post is an experiment now being conducted at Jarbidge, according to advertises received in Elko by J. C.
Doughty, postmaster at this city. The establishment started up a few weeks ago, or shortly after the 25-pound limit was installed by Postmaster General Burleson.

The grocery supplies for the store were ordered from a Twin Falls, Idaho, wholesale house and were placed in packages weighing 20 pounds each. Jarbidge, with respect to Twin Falls, is in the first zone, and consequently is able to enjoy the cheapest parcel post rate applied.
However, the mail must be sent from Twin Falls to Ogden, and thence to Death, from which point it is transported overland by Oliver Mc-Call, who has the mail contract. The long haul cuts into the profits of Uncle Sam, and as a result McCall has objected strenuously to the government for the grocery supplies make up the bulk of his load.

It has been reported that considerable flour has been transported for the Jarbidge store, the article being packed in specially provided 20 pound sacks. In addition, canned goods also make up the bulk of the supplies, and it is not to be wondered that McCall has entered an objection with the government as to the nature of the packages sent by parcel post. The mail shipments to Jarbidge have been usually heavy of lure and the stage used by McCall is loaded to the guards with the huge parcel post sacks. He is now awaiting word from Washington as to what relief will be afforded him—

AMUSEMENTS

Butler Theater.

Tonight's offering at the Butler will be as follows: "The Mysterious Hand," a Lubin drama; "The Seportha's Repentance," a Seig drama;
"A Pair of Fools," an Edison comedy.
An actor, doing over a romantic part, dreams that he is in the palace of a remarkable queen, who after rejecting three suitors, determines to marry him. After slaying the three rejected suitors he is warmly embraced by the queen whose head proves to be his fencing mask. Also a roaring Vitaphone comedy entitled "Count Barber." Miss Ophelia, having inherited a million dollars and given up her boarding house, goes to the city bent on having a good time and if possible securing a husband.
She is accompanied by her faithful maid Belinda who sticks by her through thick and thin and helps her to keep out of all kinds of trouble. They meet a gay bird, who styles himself a count. He pays court to Belinda and her mistress.
But his duplicity is discovered and it is found that he is really nothing but a barber's assistant. The two women go to his establishment and exact an appropriate revenge.

FORMER OFFICE BOY
WINS BIG PROMOTION

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 3.—L. M.
Brown, for five years chief clerk in the passenger department of the Denver and Rio Grande railroad, was promoted yesterday to the position of assistant general passenger agent, which has been vacant since Frank A. Wadleigh was appointed general passenger agent several years ago, and later general passenger and traffic manager of the Rio Grande and Western Pacific railroads.

Brown did not know of the promotion which has been in store for him for several weeks, until he entered his office yesterday.

Twenty years ago he was an office boy in the employ of the Fort Worth and Denver City Railway in Fort Worth.

A store that advertises must be a store of value—of "gargains" or the advertising would not pay.
